

“Too many people live above their means and below their potential.
It doesn't have to be that way. It can't stay that way.”

Josh's enthusiasm and his abrasive honesty rocked me to my core. His tenacity and ability to make me stand up for what I truly want was life changing. For the first time in a long time I had someone meeting me at my level and holding me accountable.

Speaking Topics

The Real Side of Money - A Maslovian Approach

Imagine learning the principles of money that schools don't teach, parents don't know, and the financial industry sure as heck hope you never find out. In this holistic approach, we bust all the money myths that are keeping us broke while learning how to build our financial future the right way. We'll cover how to make real income, protect against going backwards, create liquidity and budget, understand the indentured servitude of debt, invest for the long-term, and leverage assets to ensure our wealth doesn't stop even when we do. And that's just the start!

Escaping the Rat Race /

C.A.G.E. (Conditioned Abandonment of Greatness Eternally) Theory

The closest most people will ever come to being a successful person is the day they were born. What if we're born for success and then had to learn how to lose/fail? This is the basis for this workshop and talk that takes us through the 8 stages from birth to true Freedom. We dive into how we get stuck in our rat race and exactly what it will take to get out. From how we get stuck to a new vision to planning our escape to mental toughness, we cover all the bases that success requires of us.

Goal Crushing

Why do the vast majority of New Year's resolutions fail? We don't know how to properly set goals, we don't know how to plan goals, and we don't know how to achieve them. This workshop and talk takes off the gloves as we expose and take advantage of the what, why, and how of crushing goals, both short and long-term. From there, we master the science of taking action. Our goal? Ensure that failure is not an option and success is only a matter of time.

Bio

Josh Zepess is a corporate America escapee who, after a 20-year successful career as a semiconductor engineer and manager, decided that his path in life could not be contained within the walls of the cubicle. After years of building independent and franchise businesses, he found his passion in helping others become the person worthy of success through escaping the endless, pointless, self-defeating cycle of their personal rat race. Josh founded Broke Is No Joke as a platform and movement for True Freedom. As an author, speaker, poet, and comedian, he shares his talent for exposing the truth that we're not supposed to know under the belief that the truth will indeed set us free.
